October 2009 - Issue 58

Into the home straight; but beware the spooks

It only seems like yesterday that I sat down at the beginning of the year to set out the company's goals for the coming year and here we are – starting the final quarter.

I always find that this is a good time to reflect on the year's activity so far and we here at C&G Business Equipment thank you, our customers, for your continued and valued support. Our suppliers also work very hard to keep us up to date with developments which we in turn pass on to you so that you are also kept well informed.

In this month's issue of 'The Informer' we bring you IT support news, views from the industry and a bit of fun to boot.

As always, all you need to do is drop us an email to gain further information, provide much appreciated feedback or to give yourself a chance of winning some bubbly.

And, let's not forget, beware the spooks on the 31st!

All the best

Aaron

Anne collects Adrian's bubbly

● Anne Whitworth steps in for Adrian Yelland

Anne Whitworth stepped in to collect the winning bottle of Champagne on behalf of Adrian Yelland of Gloucester Law Centre recently.

Adrian receives his bubbly as he correctly recognised that Eminem and Jimi Hendrix were the youngsters in question.

Gloucester Law Centre is a registered charity which has been providing free, confidential impartial legal advice to Gloucester residents for 22 years. It currently covers the areas of Housing for tenants, Welfare Benefits and Council Tax, Employment, Immigration, Nationality and Asylum.

Partner news - Canon

Canon moves up three places in Business Week's Best Global Brands Ranking 2009

C&G Business Equipment's technology partner, Canon, has moved up three places to 33rd position in Business Week's 100 Best Global Brands 2009, an annual ranking of the world's top 100 companies.

The study was independently evaluated by Interbrand. The 100 Best Global Brands report identifies the top 100 brands that have managed to create and sustain strong worldwide performance in today's competitive market. To qualify, each brand must derive at least a third of its earnings outside its home country, be recognisable outside of its base of customers and have publicly available marketing and financial data.

Canon held 36th position in the league table for 2007 and 2008. This year, the report noted the recent launch of new Canon digital cameras and camcorders, including the EOS 7D, an innovative new Digital SLR camera in its flagship EOS range.

James Leipnik, Chief of Communication and Corporate Relations for Canon Europe, Middle East and Africa said: "Despite a tough year for the global economy, Canon has continued its strategy of investing in innovation with the launch of a raft of exciting new imaging products. We are very pleased to see that Canon has moved up in the 100 Best Global Brands, a reflection that the Canon brand remains strong in spite of the current economic challenges."

Brands are ranked according to brand value which is calculated by working out what percentage of the revenues generated can be attributed to the brand and then determining a risk profile on its expected earnings, based on market leadership, stability and global reach.

Limited Offer - iPF500 A2 Printer

● Canon iPF500 A2 colour printer

This month we bring you an outstanding offer in the form of the Canon iPF500 A2 colour printer.

For just £699 +vat (RRP £1595 + vat), this large format printer, ideal for CAD / GIS applications or general office use is a limited offer and will produce quality colour work for drawings or presentations.

When you need a dependable large format performer for CAD/GIS applications or general office use, the cost-effective iPF500 hits the mark. Vivid colours and 1200 dpi rendering with outstanding line reproduction provides all the quality you will ever need.

When they were kids

The mystery guests that featured in last month's newsletter were:

Nicole Kidman and Meg Ryan

The lucky winner is:

Hayley Dodsworth

of

Dajon Interiors Ltd

Congratulations Hayley, your Champagne will be with you soon.

Well we think you're too good at pop, rock and stars of the screen so we have reverted back to sport and our very own premiership.

Both of this month's featured 'kids' are currently strutting their stuff in the Premiership - the first a goal scoring midfielder, the second a goal scorer full stop - but only one wears the three lions on his chest!

Please email your answers to info@cgcopiers.co.uk and put 'October quiz' in the subject box.

Good luck!

And finally - last month saw...

Celebrity chef and wine lover, Keith Floyd, pass away aged 65

England cricket team lose emphatically in the one day series against Australia, but qualify for the semi finals of the ICC Champions Trophy - (watch this space for good news!)

Lewis Hamilton finally win in the 2009 F1 Championship in Singapore
